

Here's the steps for the driver installation please read carefully before you start to install the driver:

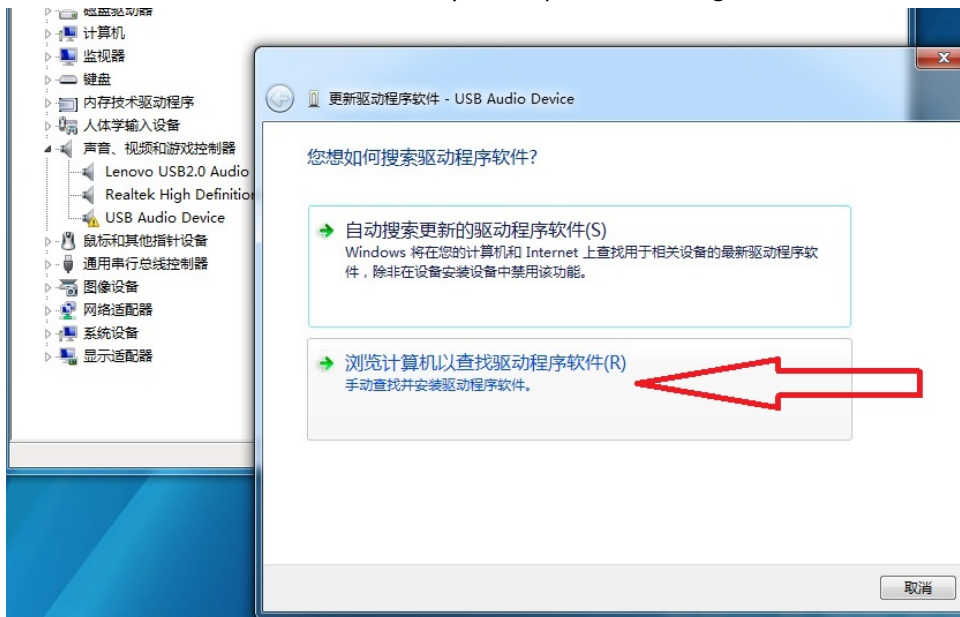

1. Connect your midi controller to your PC of Win7 system. Then go to the Device Manager, check the USB Audio Device(which is with ? mark at this time) under SOUND/VIDEO and GAME CONTROLLER as the picture showing below:

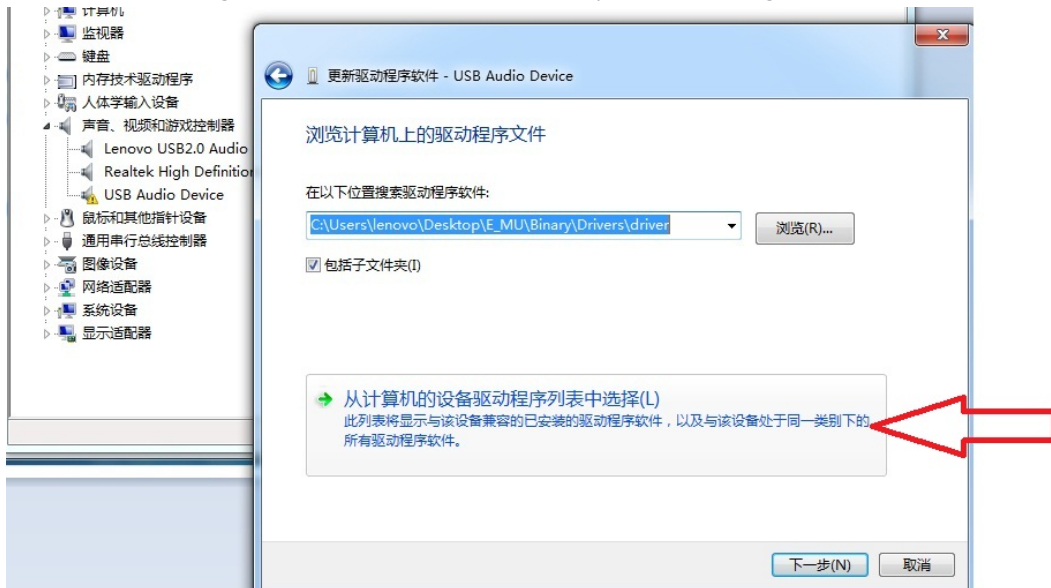

2. Right click the USB Audio Device and then left click the updating driver as the picture below showing:

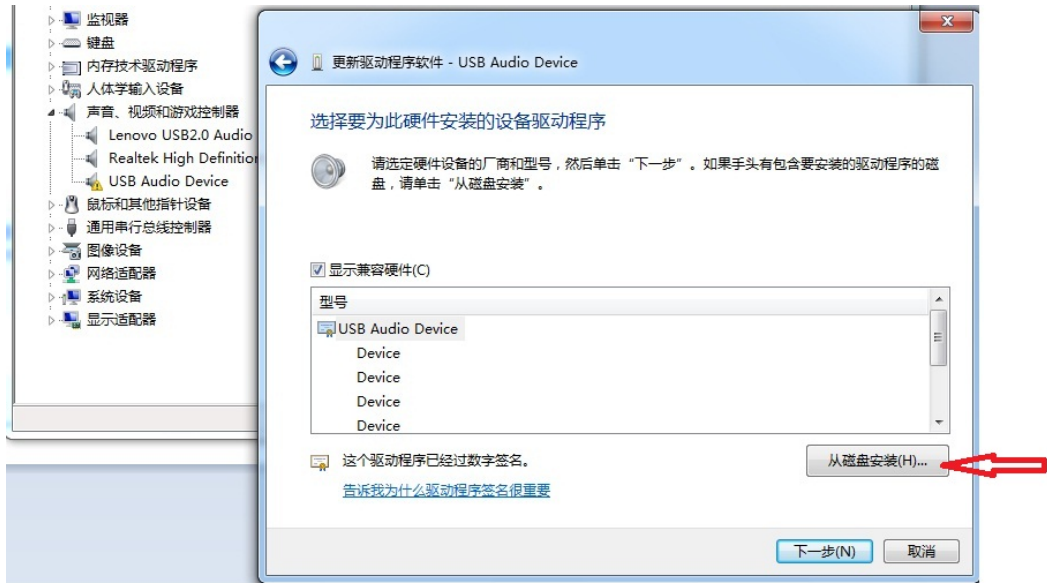

3. Left click Find and install driver manually as the picture showing below:

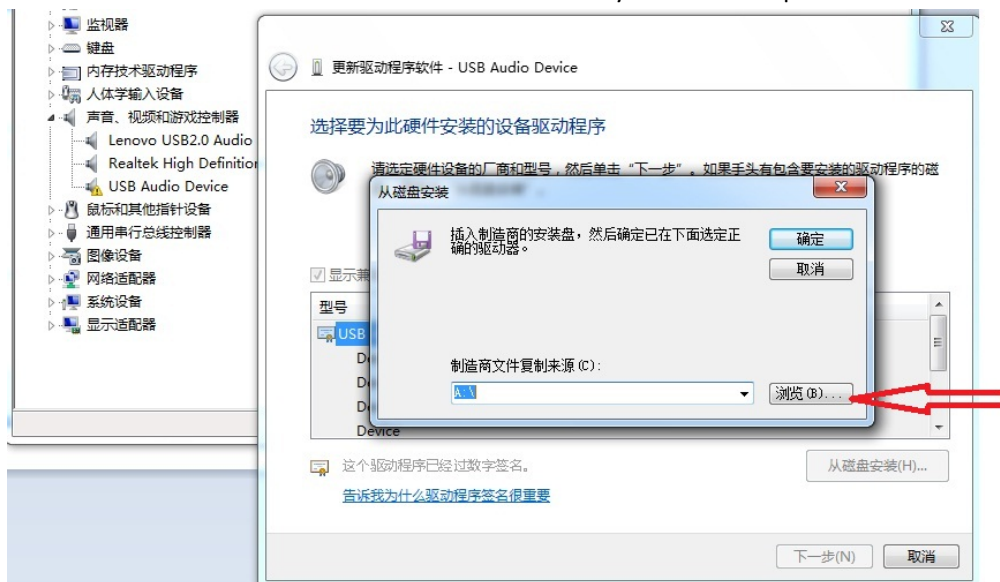

4. Left click Selecting from the device driver list(L) as picture showing below:

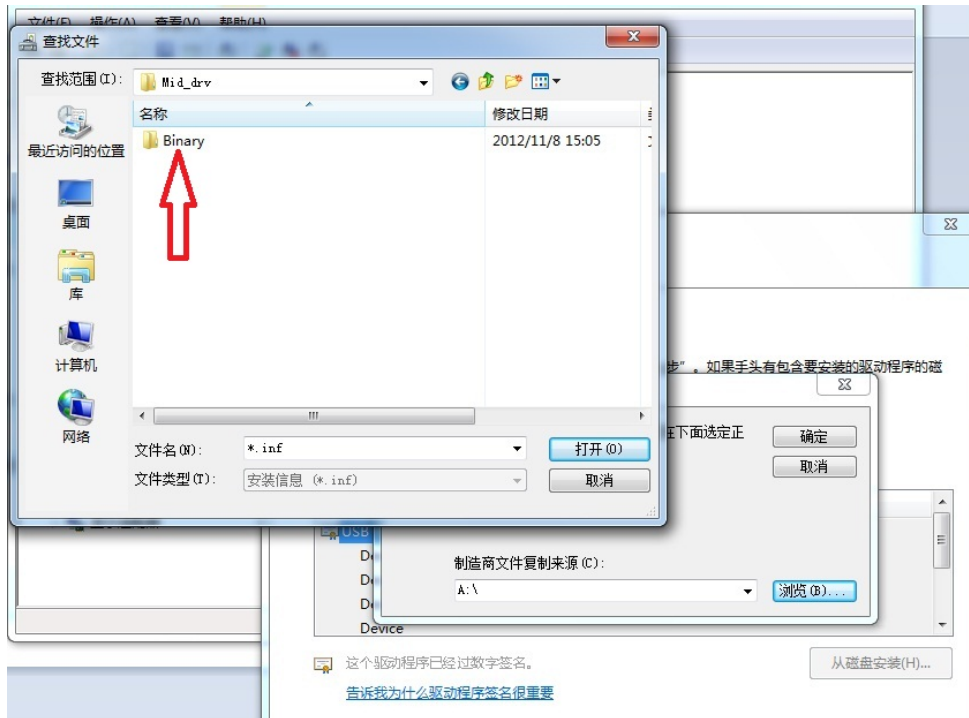

5. Left click Installing from the Disc as the picture below showing:

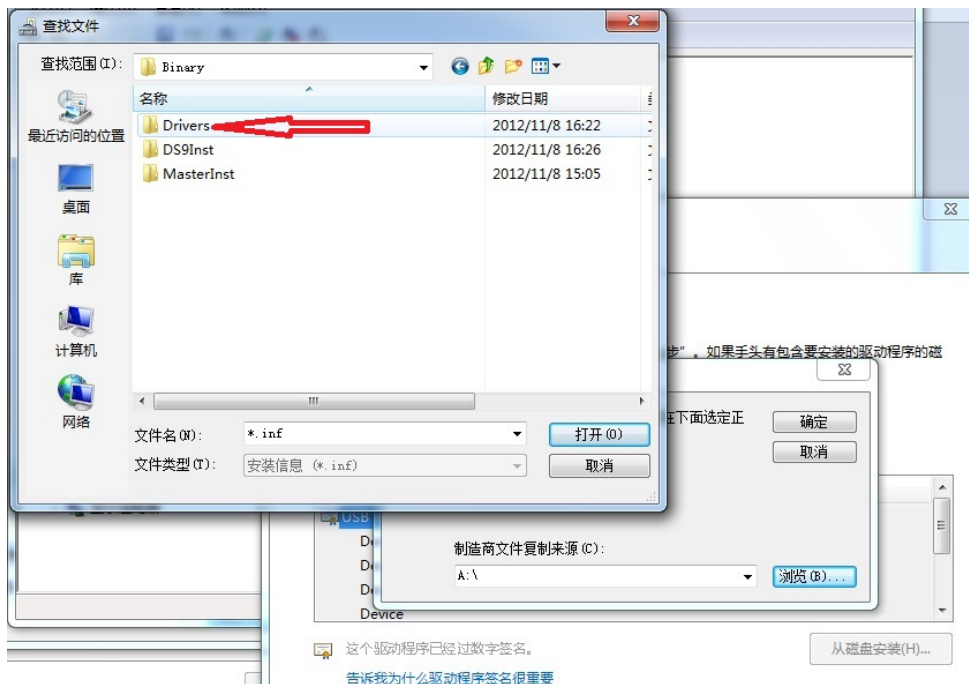

6. Left click Browse and find the driver files located in your PC as the picture below showing:

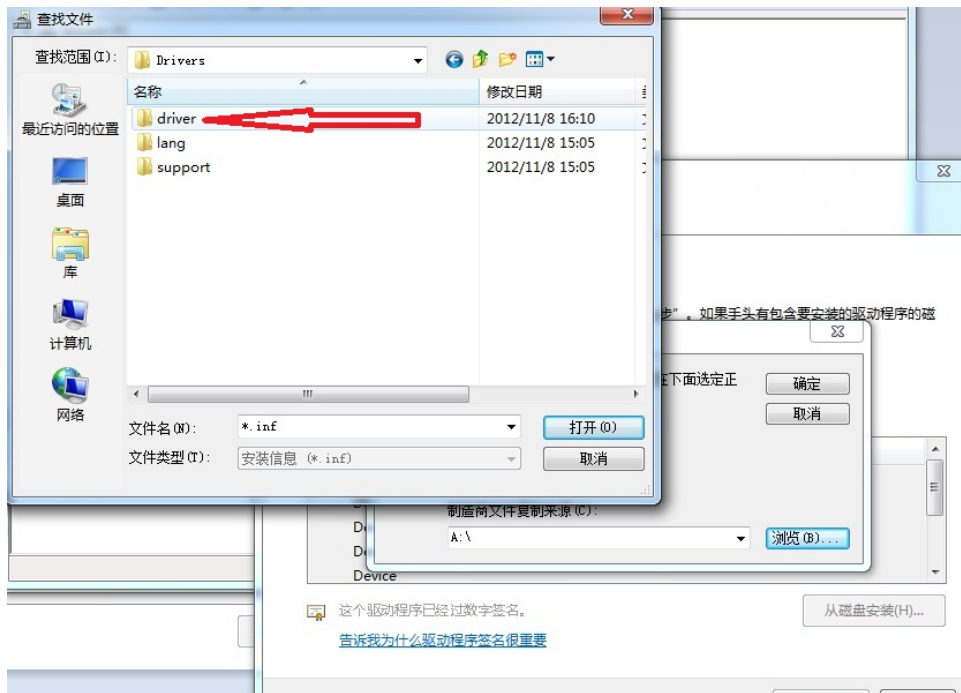

7. Try to find the folder named Binary as the picture showing below and then left click this folder:

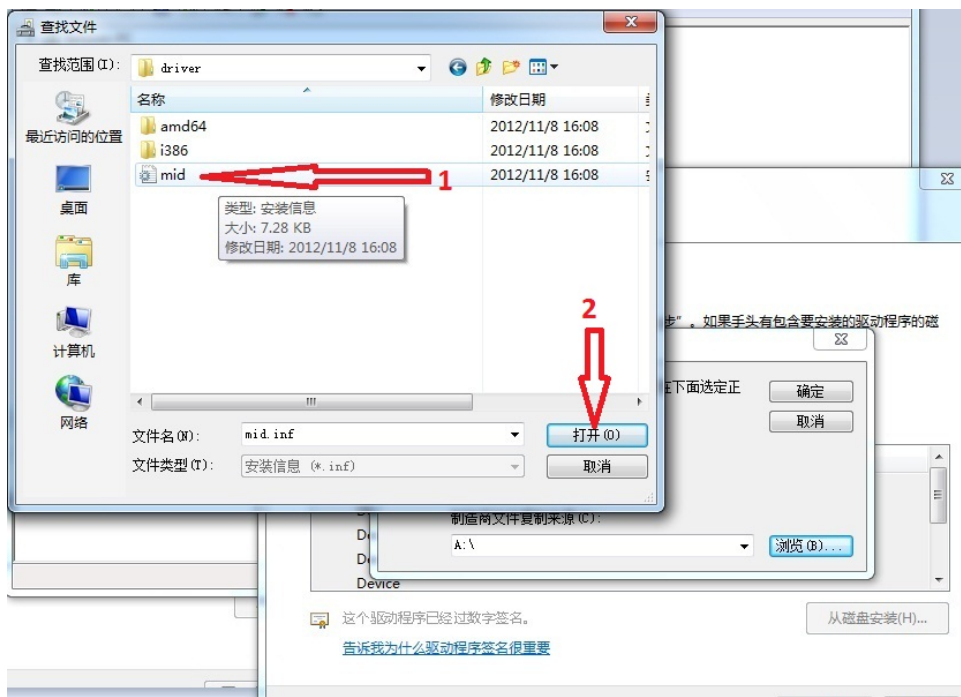

8. Try to find the folder named Drivers as picture below showing after doing step7 and then left click this folder:

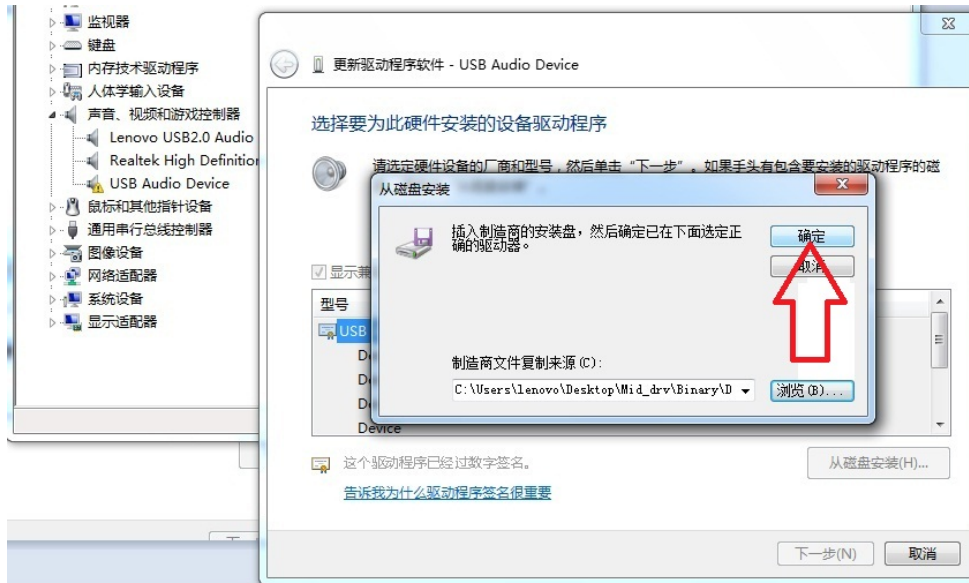

9. Try to find the folder named Driver as picture below showing after doing step8 and then left click it:

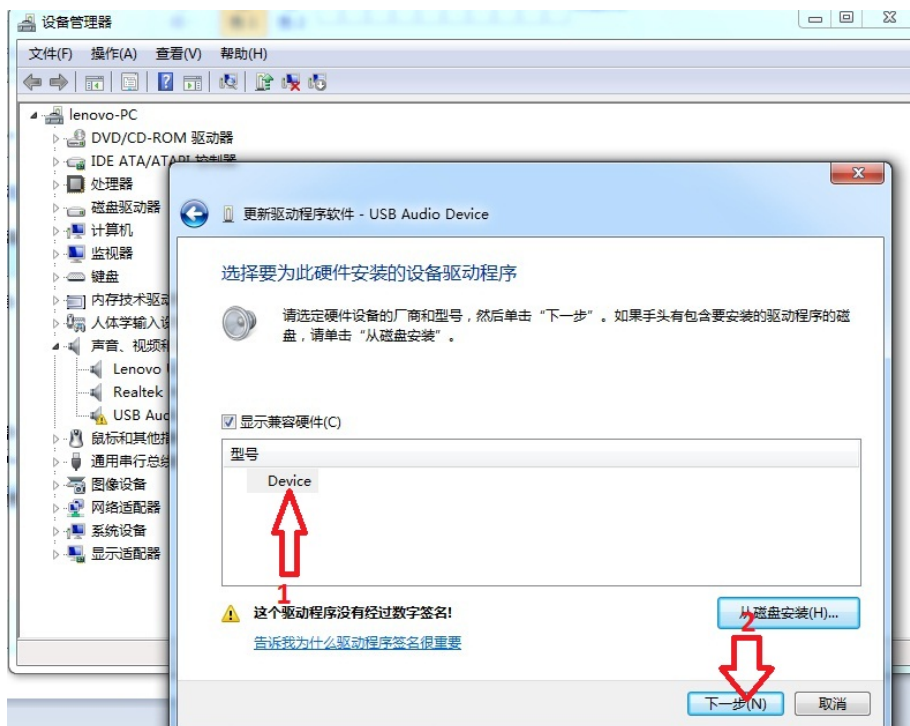

10. Try to find the file named mid and left click it, then left click Open as picture below showing after doing step 9 above:

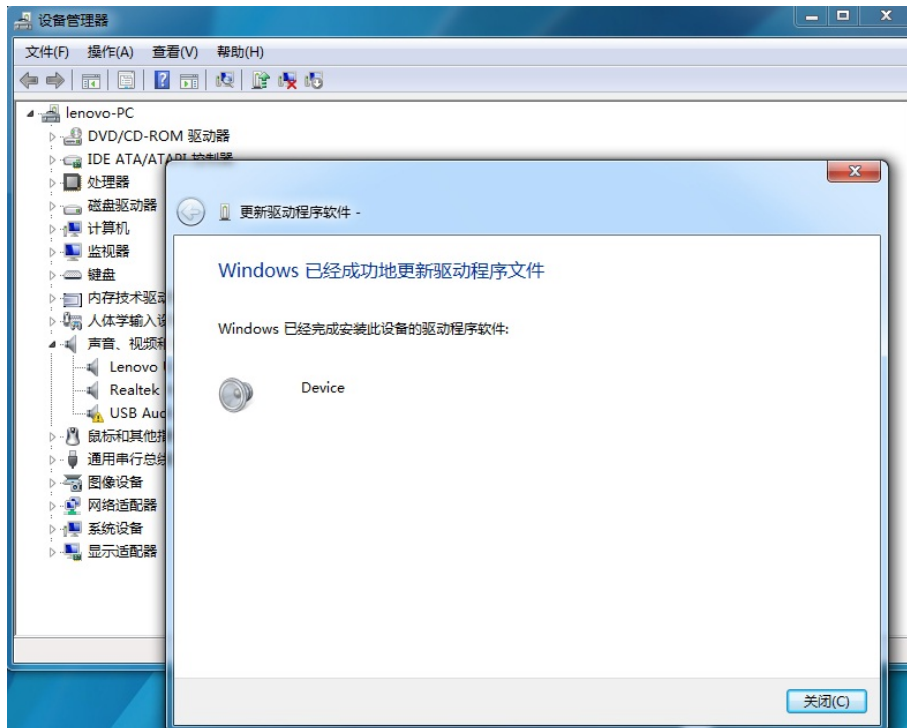

11. Left click Confirm button as picture below showing after you do step 10 above:

12. Left click Device and then left click Next as the picture below showing after you do step 11 above:

13: It's time to finish the driver installation as the picture below showing:

14:Go back to USB Audio Device under Device Manager and you will find now it's showing as a sign of Speaker and no name and ? mark is available. It means the driver is installed in your PC successfully. Thanks for your kind patience to read this driver installation instructions.

